LIBRARY GETS "PAT ON BACK" FOR SERVICES

Directors of the Adams County Free Library at their June meeting Friday evening faced financial, personnel and promotion problems; planned an Eisenhower-Gettysburg collection; advanced plans for acquiring a complete set of the works of "Elsie Singmaster" and received an unofficial "pat on the back" for the service the library renders.

Failure to date of the state to pay any of its 1955 appropriation of about $3,400 has made more critical a current depletion of the library's bank balance and brought orders to cut down on book orders and authorize a loan of up to $3,000 to complete payment on the annex being erected to the library building and finance related grounds improvements.

The approximately $1,500 cleared by a College Chapel recital in the spring was applied to the building fund to help finance the garage-stackroom addition.

Mrs. Killalea Resigns
While book purchases will be restricted until more funds are available, Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, librarian, told the board of a pressing need for additional catalog file cabinets to cost over $300.

Mrs. Wilson also announced the resignation, effective June 25, of Mrs. Madeline Killalea, library assistant for about two years, who has accepted a teaching position. Her position has not been filled.

The praise for the county library came from Miss Ethel Fair, Harrisburg, who is engaged in library evaluation work for the Pennsylvania Library Association. On an unofficial visit to the county library recently, Miss Fair said "the Adams County library rates very high among the libraries of the state in point of service rendered." She also described as "unusual" the rapid growth of facilities and services in the 10 years the county library has been in operation.

President Eisenhower pats the twin-motored airplane in which he made his first flight to Gettysburg, from Washington, since his election. It was the first time a President flew in a twin-motored ship. "Then let's go over to the other farm" and the group trudged to the former Brandon farm.

Before leaving the President addressed the breeders:

"I'm sorry my family isn't here or I'd take you up and give you a cup of coffee and a sandwich, but I'm alone here today."

Elden Holtzapple, of Mitchell, Ind., national 4-H champion, and his father, Warren, presented the President with a Berkshire sow, "Holtzapple Belle of Fishing C."

"Good Running Guard"

On the Eisenhower and George Allen farm nearby are approximately 44 head of cattle, 19 pigs, two sows, and about 60 ewes and 60 lambs. Practically all of the herd is the Allen-B. G. Byers property. The President has eight or nine head. He is not associated with the other two. General Arthur S. Nevins supervises the two herds.

When the sow was let out of her small truck she started pawing around. The President beamed and said, jokingly: "Don't let her hit me. She's a good running guard. How much does she weigh?" Young Holtzapple said "around 300."

The President questioned the youth at length and on several occasions said, pointing to the sow, "Isn't she good looking?" When the animal appeared restless, Ike said, "Where are you going, back home?" Young Holtzapple told the President that the sow was due to have a litter of pigs July 15. Ike laughed loudly and said, "I'll be up here to check on her."

"Put Her In Maternity Ward"

"We'll put her in a maternity ward," he added.

The President told the young 4-H champion, "I'm going to get your recipe for ham, bacon and sausage, because I'm sure going to use it down here on the farm." He told the youth "I'm glad you brought your father along." The 18-year-old farmer had visited the President at the White House recently with the 4-H girl champion and each received a set of silver from the Chief Executive. When the boy produced the colored photograph of the White House meeting the President took it, walked to the barn and leaning against the door wrote a lengthy autograph.

After walking around the barns and talking cattle with everyone the President headed back to the farmhouse. Enroute he was told that an Ohio party was due with another cow but that they were late.

"There isn't any great rush, is there, unless the press boys have a date in town," the President queried.

No Knowledge of Sheep

The party walked to the farm pond where the President has 21 young Mallard ducks. He inquired how they were getting along, whether they expected any additions and other questions of General Nevins. On the way back to the farm the party passed some sheep. Someone asked Ike something about them and he replied "I don't know anymore about raising sheep than a dog knows about religion."

About 4 o'clock Fred and Herbert Penick, of Hebron, Ohio, representing A. J. Penick and Sons and the Heart of Ohio Aberdeen Angus Association, arrived and presented the President with another cow, "Black Bird XIV of WV (Wayview Farms)." She will be two years old June 27. The brothers had driven 400 miles to present the heifer. "She's right in the pasture where she'll live for a long while," the President said.

"Back To Salt Mines"

The cow was turned loose and she headed for the pond where she drank for some time. The President watched with interest then turning around said, "Well, we'll have to get back to the salt mines," and the crowd roared.

Nearing the house he turned to his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, said something about flying to Gettysburg and added: "That's an easy way to come here compared to that car."

Hagerty, reporters and photographers agreed, heartily.

Four hours, to the minute, after the President arrived in Gettysburg, he took off on his return flight to Washington at 4:50 o'clock.

About 8 per cent of U. S. people are over 60 years old compared to 4 per cent in 1900.

case. Neither would the resident physician who was present when the infant died. Dr. Desmond said she was not there at the time.

Miracle Ann arrived three months early Thursday night. Dr. Robert Kelley said there was no heart beat or breath.

"We removed the mucus from the baby's respiratory passages, and when the baby still did not respond, we gave it artificial respiration by massaging it gently," Kelley said.

"No Heart Beat"

"When this failed we gave a stimulant. We worked on the baby at least an hour. We never got a heart beat. Then I pronounced it dead."

The father, a 36-year-old floor finisher, told his wife their baby had died. They have two other daughters.

Miracle Ann was taken to a funeral home.

Some two hours later, mortician J. Robert Corry walked into the room where she lay.

"This is the first time in my 20 years in this business that anyone has come to life as I was preparing to embalm," Corry said. He said he saw no movement of the legs or arms—"just the heart beating . . . You know how a baby's little chest heaves."

Today's Talk

THAT TIME OF YOURS

We are not concerned with the conservation of time as we should be. I can't forget an inscription that a teacher in High School penned in my autograph book. She wrote: "This day will never dawn again!" We take hours, days and months as though they were just happenings. What they really are is the substance of ourselves — if we have been in them and been profitably used by them.

Wasted time is as though it never had been. None of us use more than a small percentage of our abilities. We allow much of our time to just float by! How habitual it is for people to be late to work and late to appointments, as though time had no value whatsoever. Edison so begrudged any loss of time that he trained himself to take quick naps throughout the day.

If the mind has been filled with important and interesting knowledge, we can never lose time, for we have it with us even in memory and in the good deeds that follow us. I have pleasant and happy thoughts as I drive to my office each day, and on trains, for I have stored what time has brought to me throughout the years.

People who accomplish much are usually men and women of few words. Their thoughts are forever multiplying among themselves. They are forever banking time that has been made alive. I once visited an old friend while he was ill and he recited from memory long passages from Shakespeare. He had them stored in that brain of his, and made them come to life.

Keats, the poet, died when hardly more than a boy, and his life output of poetry is contained in but a handful of books — but they are sufficient to make him immortal! People with much to do wish that there could be many times the amount of time that they have. Cecil Rhodes exclaimed, just before he died: "So much to do, so little time." Yet he created an Empire in "darkest Africa!"

The more we see, read, and set aside in the library of our mind, the less will we complain in later days and the happier we will be with our wealth of ideas and thoughts. They have to steal us. Even then they can't gain.

RELEASED JET PILOTS KEPT BUSY IN HAWAII

By ROY ESSOYAN
HONOLULU (AP)—Freedom comes hard when you've just been released from Communist captivity.

Four U.S. jet pilots, free after more than two years imprisonment in Red China, are finding that out. They've been trying to squeeze a little time with their families in between visits to the dentist's chair and interrogation sessions with Air Force headquarters officials from Washington.

Little Free Time
Maj. William M. Ginty, press officer, said, "They're having a hard time. We haven't been able to give them one free uninterrupted afternoon with their families yet." The officers, Lt. Col. Edwin Heller of Wynnewood, Pa., Capt. Harold E. Fischer of Suez City, Iowa, Lt. Lyle Cameron of Lincoln, Neb., and Lt. Roland W. Parks of Omaha, arrived from Hong Kong Wednesday.

Their families were flown in on a special Air Force plane less than 24 hours later for a joyous reunion in romantic Hawaii.

All Need Dental Work
McGinty said their schedules since have been "tight as a drum." All the men need dental care. Fischer most of all. McGinty said Fischer would occupy a dentist's chair every day until they leave. Heller had a tooth extracted and the others need fillings.

Interrogation sessions, too, apparently will continue until departure time, now scheduled for Monday. The plane should arrive at Travis Air Force Base, Calif. Tuesday.

From there the plane will fly the men and their families to Omaha and Philadelphia before returning to Washington.

Two Senators To Tour Far East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two members of the Senate Appropriations Committee will tour the Far East for an on-the-spot inspection of the foreign aid program.

The report to be brought back in a month by Sens. Clements (D-Ky.) and Dirksen (R-Ill.), is certain to influence the committee's consideration of President Eisenhower's $3½ billion aid program for the year starting July 1.

They will leave tomorrow for visits to Japan, Korea, Formosa, the Philippines and Indochina. Dirksen also will visit Europe.

Dirksen said in an interview the Appropriations Committee would make "the closest examination" of the new aid program, authorized in full by the Senate Thursday.

NO MORE FLIERS BEING RELEASED

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China border sources said today there were no reports from inside the Communist country "which would indicate the release of more American fliers."

These sources, who correctly forecast the release of four U.S. jet fliers set free by Peiping last Tuesday, were commenting on Manila reports quoting an Indian editor as saying last night that Red China would free 11 more American airmen within 24 hours.

The U.S. Air Force office in Hong Kong said it had no word on any fliers being released and Hong Kong officials said they had heard nothing.

Indian government officials in New Delhi also expressed surprise over the report.

The 11 Americans were crewmen of a B29 bomber shot down Jan. 12, 1953, during the Korean War.

AUTO WORKERS PRESS FIGHTS ON TWO FRONTS

DETROIT, June 4 (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers pressed its contract battles on two fronts today, hoping to combine the best gains won from both the Ford Motor Co. and General Motors Corp.

The Ford talks, with a strike deadline only 36 hours away, were the most urgent.

But the union's negotiations with General Motors were stepped up despite an extra 48 hours grace.

Promise Strike
The UAW, after once delaying a strike deadline, now says it will call 140,000 Ford workers on strike Monday morning unless a settlement is reached by then.

Ford and the UAW were to resume their conferences today after three sessions—including one at night — yesterday. With the strike deadline fast approaching, there were indications that today's meeting might go well into the night.

General Motors and the union were to meet at 12:30 p.m. today and at two sessions tomorrow. One of these will start at 6 p.m., marking the first night session at GM in two months of bargaining.

Report On Terms
Ford reportedly has offered to supplement state unemployment compensation payments to laid off workers—the principles behind the union's guaranteed annual wage demand.

The company is said to have offered to guarantee its employees 65 per cent of normal take-home pay for the first four weeks of an idleness and 60 per cent for an additional 22 weeks. Unemployment compensation paid by the various states would be deducted from the company's obligation.

This offer has been described as a "guaranteed semiannual wage."

The UAW is seeking to persuade

Don't Steal To Bet On Ponies, She Says

NEW YORK (AP)—A plump New Jersey woman accused of stealing thousands of dollars over a 10-year period from cash registers of stores and hospitals to bet on the horses has this advice for others: "Don't do it. It doesn't pay . . . You can't sleep at night."

Speaking was Mrs. Mary Pado, 46, who gave her address as Hoboken, N.J. She was arrested by detectives yesterday as she was released from a women's prison in Clinton, N.J.

Police said she is wanted in Pennsylvania, Detroit, and Washington State. They estimated the alleged thefts amounted to $100,000.

NEHRU TO MOSCOW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru left here by air today on the first leg of a five-week visit to Moscow and other East European capitals. He is due in Moscow Tuesday.

Ford to improve on both the size and duration of the benefits it has offered.

General Motors is said to have held out to date against any form of a guaranteed wage. But it is reported to have gone beyond the concessions granted by Ford on pensions and wage boosts.

Unofficial sources said GM has offered to pay $2.25 a month for each year of an employee's service to cover his pension, compared with $2 offered by Ford. The union is seeking payments of $2.50. Both firms now pay $1.75 a month pension for each year of credited service.

General Motors also is said to have offered a flat six cent hourly "annual improvement factor" wage increase each year under a new contract compared with Ford's offer of five to eight cents. This is to compensate workers for technological advances in the industry, such as automation, without regard to ups and downs in the cost of living.

This offer has been described as a "guaranteed semiannual wage."

WOMAN DIES IN GAS CHAMBER AFTER 2 DELAYS

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Barbara Graham met death with outward calm and dignity yesterday in San Quentin's gas chamber. Two harrowing court stays delayed her execution an hour and a half and impelled her to protest: "Why do they torture me?"

Two professional killers — her partners in a murder that was plotted for money but didn't pay a penny — followed her in death three hours later. She was the third woman legally executed in California.

Convicted of six slayings, Jack Santo and Emmett Perkins died as easily as they had killed, joking and grinning together in the bare gas chamber where Mrs. Graham died quietly and alone.

Mrs. Graham, 32 and in trouble with the law since she was 13, and the two murderers were executed for the torture slaying of Mrs. Mabel Monahan at Burbank in 1933. They thought Mrs. Monahan, a Las Vegas gambler's widow, could tell them where $100,000 was hidden.

Found No Money
Mrs. Monahan didn't talk, and the three found no money.

Santo, 54, husky mob leader, and Perkins, 47, also were under death sentence for the brutal slaughter in 1932 of Guard Young, a Chester grocer, and three small children.

An hour before Mrs. Graham's scheduled execution at 10 a.m., Gov. Goodwin J. Knight ordered a temporary stay to permit a new ballerina-length gown of rayon taffeta and net with a jacket, similar in design to the bride's gown. On her head she wore a wreath of flowers and she carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Going On Honeymoon
The ushers were Charles Seymour, brother of the bride, and Patrick Eckenrode, brother of the bridegroom. Breakfast was served for the bridal party at the home of the bride after the ceremony. There will be a reception at 7 o'clock this evening in the Catholic War Veterans' club house in Bonneauville.

The couple will leave afterwards on a honeymoon of unannounced destination. As a going-away ensemble the bride has chosen a white linen dress with red accessories.

The bride, who attended Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, is employed at the Carroll Shoe Company, Littlestown. Her husband, who served for two years in the U.S. Army is employed by Eddie's Cleaners, Littlestown.

White Sox With Jack Harshman End Honeymoon For Yanks With 3-2 Victory; Tribe Bows 3-1

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press

Casey Stengel, known far and wide for his baseball wisdom even though it is difficult at times to fathom the meaning of his double talk, knew of what he spoke when he said the honeymoon was over for his New York Yankees.

The Yankee skipper made the remark in a few thousand words after the American League leaders had left the friendly confines of Kansas City's Municipal Stadium and headed for Comiskey Park, home of the Chicago White Sox.

The Yankees were riding high on a record of 19 victories in their last 22 games, including 14 out of 16 against their favorite sparring partners—Washington, Baltimore and Kansas City. And their record since leaving home stood at 7-1.

Top Standings Tighten

But last night they arrived at Comiskey Park, where Stengel predicted the trouble would start. It did with the White Sox winning 3-2 behind the hitting and pitching of Jack Harshman. Since the Cleveland Indians were unable to take advantage of the Yanks' setback, losing 3-1 to astringing on Mickey McDermott's 3-hitter, the top of the standings tightened.

Three games still separated the Yanks and the Indians but the Pale Hose found themselves only a half-game out of second place today. In other American League games the Detroit Tigers defeated the Orioles 7-2 as Ned Garver won his first game in more than three weeks and the Athletics edged the Boston Red Sox 4-3 on Wilmer Shantz's two-run homer.

The National League leaders both came through with triumphs. The Brooklyn Dodgers continued to slug the ball to all corners of the lot, thumping the St. Louis Cardinals 12-5, while the second place Chicago Cubs turned back the slipping New York Giants 4-1 on homers by Gene Banks, Eddie Miksis and Bob Speake.

Homer Wins For Braves
Bill Bruton's 10th inning homer gave the Milwaukee Braves a 4-3 decision over Philadelphia and Pittsburgh nosed out Cincinnati 7-6 with rookie catcher Harding Peters hitting a bases-loaded single with one out in the ninth.

The White Sox-Yankee game, witnessed by 40,020, lived up to its advance notices. Harshman set down the New Yorkers on nine well spaced hits and drove in two runs and set up the other. The league leaders had the lanky southpaw on the ropes several times but couldn't cash in except in the fourth when Bill Skowron hit his sixth homer and in the sixth when Mickey Mantle connected with his 12th. The victory was Harshman's first over the Yanks after losing four to them last year.

McDermott, who shut out the Indians 3-0 in his last clash with the American League champions, fanned six and walked five in recording his fourth win. Mickey Vernon and Roy Sievers hit homers to provide McDermott with all the runs he needed. Bob Lemon was the loser.

Joy To Tigers
Garver's six-hitter against the Orioles brought joy to the Tigers. The 29-year-old right-hander, whose last victory was May 11, also delivered a single and a double. Cal Abrams collected three of Baltimore's hits—a single, double and a home run—to drive in all the runs. Harvey Kuenn was the Detroit lineup for the first time since May 22 and drove in the Tigers' first run with a single.

The Cardinals used eight pitchers, tying the National League record, in an attempt to stop the Dodgers. The league leaders belted starter Tom Poholsky for four runs in the first inning as Duke Snider got his 17th homer and Roy Campanella contributed a double and two singles and drove in five runs.

Stan Musial hit his 300th homer with two mates aboard in the fifth. The circuit bow placed Musial in a select group of 13 major leaguers who hit 300 or more homers.

Rush's String Broken
Bob Rush's string of scoreless frames against the Giants was broken after 26 1-3 innings when Don Mueller hit an inside the park homer in the first. Thereafter the veteran right-hander allowed only five hits and didn't walk a man.

Bruton got the chance to deliver his game-winning homer for the Braves because Roy Smalley connected with a three-run homer for the Phils in the fourth to tie the score.

Brooklyn Dodger coach Billy Herman was the National League second baseman in ten straight All-Star games.

Softball fans were given a double-header on the recreation field Friday evening as the VFW defeated the Legion 15-5 and the Elks took on the Moose 8-5. The double-header was a make-up affair of a postponement on opening day.

In the first game the Vets tallied twice in the second and third frames and three times in the fourth and fifth then added security runs in the seventh as they crushed the Legion. Extra-base blows caused most of the damage. Ben Little started by pounding out a home-run in the fourth with two men on. Hoak and Greiner followed with doubles in the fifth with men aboard and Clarence Dorn added another two bager in the seventh with men on base.

The Legion tallied in the second on doubles by Myers and Bill Gormley. McKee doubled in the fifth and came home on Olson's single to give the Legion another score in the fourth. Three more runs were tallied in the fifth on a fielder's choice, hit batsman, a pair of walks and a two-bagger by Olson.

Ben Little starred for the Vets by clouting four hits in five times at bat. Olson led the losers with two for three for the day.

In the second game, the Elks captured their first victory as they handed the Moose their first loss in a thrilling 10-5 contest. The Elks scored three in the first and two in the second and third. The runs were tallied on safeties by Woodward, Knox, Fisel, Johnson and Leech and a trio of infield miscues. In the fourth, "Reds" Saunders belted his first home run with no one on base, and came back in the sixth and blasted another four-bagger into the parking lot adjoining the ball diamond. This time there was one man on base.

The Moose tallied four of their five runs in the fifth. An infield error put Cole on while Baumgardner rapped a safety to place runners on second and third. Tawney then pounded a long homerun to deep right field to bring in the runners.

Saunders, Cole and Fisel each collected a pair of hits to lead the way for the winners. Conover allowed only five scattered hits to capture his first win. Tawney is charged with the loss.

ASHENFELTER SETS MARK BUT SANTEE MISSES

By BILL BECKER

COMPTON, Calif. (AP)—Horace Ashenfelter, the flying FBI man from the New York Athletic Club, possesses a new American two-mile mark of 8:49.6 today.

But Wes Santee, the perennial pursuer, has yet to unravel the secret of the 4-minute mile.

Santee ran a sparkling 4:01.2 in last night's Compton Invitational mile, pushed by Bob Seaman of UCLA and Fred Dwyer, the ex-Villanova star. Seaman was clocked in 4:01.4. Dwyer 4:01.9, to make it the first time three Americans ever bettered 4:02 in one race.

Honor For Ashenfelter
For Ashenfelter, it was just a matter of pacing himself. He defeated Fernando Ledesma of the University of Southern California by nearly 30 yards and cracked Gunder Hagg's 12-year old American record of 8:51.3. Belgian Gaston Reiff holds the world mark of 8:40.4.

Ashenfelter was named outstanding athlete of the meet.

Thrills For Crowd

The running of J. W. Mashburn and Mal Whitfield also thrilled the crowd of 7,500. Mashburn won the 440 in 46.5, fastest quarter mile of the year, and Whitfield took the 880 in 1:48.9. The two hooked up in a great duel in the mile relay, with Mashburn's 46-second anchor lap giving his Oklahoma A&M team an eyelash victory over Whitfield of the Los Angeles AC, clocked in 45.9.

Texas sprinter Dean Smith clocked off wins in the 100 and 220, timed in 9.5 and 20.9.

STOCKTON, Calif.—Gil Cadilli, 128, San Francisco, and Jaime Basquez, 122, Stockton, drew, 10. SANTIAGO, Chile—German Pardo, Chile, stopped Antonio Gomez, Argentina, 3. (flyweights, but exact weights not available).

Although the blond Irishman from New York's Greenwich Village is only 26, he hasn't been working steady at his trade since he lost to Bobo Olson in their 1953 match for the American middleweight title.

"Maybe I'm finally getting smart," said Young last night after he had pounded out a unanimous 10-round decision over Billy McNeece at Madison Square Garden. "I used to be a big bettor at the track but now I'm down to $2. I've got to get serious with two kids to take care of."

Young wants to take on two or three more middles and then fight France's Charles Humez. In the meantime, he'd like Eduardo Lausse, the Argentine, Willie Troy or Willie Pastrana.

Judge Harold Barnes scored it 7-2-1, Judge Joe Agnello 7-3 and Referee Al Berl 6-3-1, all for Young. The AP had it 6-2-2 for Young, the 8½ to 5 favorite. Young weighed 163½, McNeece 167½.

Eight Errors
Penn State sealed its own doom against Colgate by making eight errors. The Lions held a 1-0 lead going into the third inning when Colgate capitalized on one hit, three errors and a wild pitch to get three runs.

Ron Weidenhammer, Penn State's third baseman, had four of his team's eight hits.

PADDY YOUNG GETS DECISION OVER M'NEECE

Higher Speeds Cut Gasoline Mileage Rate Considerably; Find Car's Best Cruising Rate

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL
One way to escape taxes is to start passing other cars on blind curves.

Apropos Of Mileage

While it is true that the best gas mileage can be had on the open road where the car gets rolling and there are no traffic complications most motorists do not get anything to brag about in the way of fuel economy when traveling because they are inclined to keep the engine plugging along at too high speed. The element of hurry, not to mention keeping up with the procession, cuts mileage considerably. I had occasion to note this the other day when on the way back home during a short trip. I was in no hurry, the scenery was pleasant, the company ideal (my wife aboard) and the car running at its best. We just let the car drift along without forcing it and letting pass all inclination to step on the gas. I could hardly believe my eyes when a refilling of the tank indicated that the car had been giving close to 20 miles per gallon as against its normal of 15 to 16.

The car's rolling speed always is its easiest. You can find this on the open road when there is opportunity to study the engine's behavior. Use of a vacuum gauge is helpful here. On my car I have a performance meter which is effective in telling me at just what throttle opening the car is operating most economically.

Risk In Partial Job

It is always bad business to go half way in cleaning a cooling system. This is likely to result in stirred up sediment and rust moving from the engine block to the radiator with a good chance of clogging the latter. Professionally the job is broken down into separate rate cleansing of the block and the radiator. They flush and then reverse flush each unit. To do this it is necessary to remove the motor thermostat and also to disconnect the hoses.

For Future Reference

Since there is always a possibility that a new motor thermostat may be installed incorrectly make sure that you are familiar with this sort of thing before patting yourself on the back for having been able to make the change yourself. Sometimes thermostats are plainly marked as an aid to the car owner or his mechanic. In such cases the side marked "front" should face the radiator.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"Just for the record it may be well to note that all cars do not have the same kind of power steering. There are three general types, with some detailed variations. Two of these are what engineers call the integral type for the reason that they are part of the steering gear unit. However, there is an interesting difference between these two systems in that one of them provides power assistance all the time while the other doesn't boost until the driver finds it necessary to pull on the steering wheel rim with a tug of about four pounds. This has divided motordom into two opposing camps, with car owners already using both types on a wide scale. The third general type of power steering utilizes a separate double acting power cylinder representing what might be called a power link.

"But all three systems use an oil pump for hydraulic pressure. It is driven by a belt from the engine."

May Not Be Booster

When there is a feeling that the brake pedal is hard to press or is meeting resistance the driver of a car with power brakes is likely to jump to the conclusion that the power system is kicking over the traces. He should, however, first check into those conditions which would bring about a hard pedal with regular brakes, such as glazed brake lining, improperly adjusted brake shoes or worn anchor pins. There can also be bound up pedal linkage. But if checking shows normal mechanical action of the hydraulic brakes then the booster system may be at fault. Check for a troublesom vacuum check valve, plugged vacuum fittings, a jammed vacuum cylinder piston, leaking vacuum reserve tank or a collapsed vacuum hose.

Toward Better Polishing

In the directions for use of some of the car polishes it is recommended that the soft cloth to which the polish is applied be damp. The effect of this is to provide better spread of the polish when it is transferred to the car's finish. It is also recommended that small areas of about a square foot be covered between applications. All this obviously is done to prevent too thin spread of the polish, or streaked application. In applying paste wax it is also well to use a damp cloth. This need not be done when using liquid wax or spray-on waxes as they have sufficient carrier fluid to provide an even spread.

Something Of A Lure

I have watched for various comments on much publicized statements that the super highways are an answer to traffic safety. Apparently it is not too well known that hazardous roads are not in themselves an invitation to danger. If it were true that safety requires a perfect road the accident rate on many of the world's most tortuous highways would be far in excess of what it is at present. Within a radius of fifty miles of my home there are a number of danger points which have so seldom figured in the news the highway planners have not as yet felt the need for eliminating them. These spots are so obviously hazardous that the average driver immediately prepares to meet an emergency. One is a short, narrow, old-fashioned bridge over railroad. You can't see a car coming over the other side and if you met one on the bridge you'd have trouble passing. Most of the trouble in this territory develops on the best roads. Clearly something is needed besides wide flat surfaces which apparently have an insidious way of luring drivers into thinking safety is synonymous with paving.

Although it has been kicking around these many years the slip joint on the propeller shaft of a car featuring Hotchkiss drive is among the forgotten parts. With this type drive the rear wheels are sometimes closer to the front wheels, or further from them, depending on road conditions and how much power is being applied through the rear wheels. The drive shaft, therefore, has to change its length according. That's where the slip joint comes in.

It is made up of the splines at the end of the propeller shaft, sliding into a joint attached to the universal joint's hub. This joint requires lubrication. There have been odd noises from grease hardening in the joint.

Cars with torque tube drive do not indulge in wheelbase changes and do not usually need a slip joint. (Continued On Page 8)

THOUSANDS GO JOBLESS TODAY AS BRITISH RAIL STRIKE SPREADS

By STANLEY GODFREY

LONDON (AP) — Thousands of Britons went jobless today as the seven-day-old rail strike crippled the nation's booming industry.

Efforts to reach a settlement in the strike involving 80 per cent of Britain's locomotive crewmen bogged down despite a barrage of peace appeals by the government and trade union leaders.

The Federation of British Industries warned that the crisis point in unemployment would come in a few days unless trains get rolling.

Mass layoffs began throughout the country yesterday.

One big steel firm in Scotland told its 17,000 workers, "There may be no jobs for you until the strike is over."

Six Welsh steel plants have let their baking ovens die out and other manufacturing centers reported dozens of firms going over to three or four-day work weeks with skilled workers transferred to maintenance jobs.

Prime Minister Eden's crisis committee of government ministers set in motion a big "save industry" drive to cope with the biggest setback to Britain's thriving economy since the end of World War II.

Eden To Go On Air

Eden himself arranged to go on the air tomorrow to make his second broadcast in a week. Aides said he planned to issue a blunt warning to the strikers to end their walkout before he is forced to give full run to the emergency powers granted him by Queen Elizabeth.

Under these powers the government could take over all forms of transport, restrict movement and use troops to ferry vital supplies across the nation.

No fresh moves to solve the strike have been made in the past 24 hours.

The strikers are demanding a raise of $1.12 a week over their present base pay of $27.30.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

PLANE FLIGHT AND FOUR GIFTS PLEASE IKE

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was difficult to tell whether President Eisenhower was happier over his sleek new twin-engine plane or the gift livestock he received for his farm.

No doubt about it, he was tickled about both.

The President used the speedy light plane. A four-seater attached to the air force, for the first time yesterday on a trip to the farm at Gettysburg, Pa., and back to Washington. He never had flown to or from the farm before and it was the first time since he took office he had been in anything smaller than a huge four-engined aircraft.

At the farm, Eisenhower flashed a delighted smile in accepting from the donors a 300-pound Berkshire sow and three Black Angus cattle for his growing herd.

As for the plane, which he probably will use quite a bit in the future for shorter trips, the President put it this way at the farm:

An Easy Trip

"Boy, that's an easy way to come here compared to that car." Always before he had traveled to Gettysburg by automobile. The 85-mile trip ordinarily takes about two hours through fairly heavy traffic.

Yesterday he zipped up there in 32 minutes and was whisked back in 22, pushed by a brisk tail wind.

"That's a lot better than two hours," Eisenhower observed with a smile as a climbed out of the plane at National Airport here.

Eisenhower's next trip in the light plane may be to Pennsylvania State University, where he will deliver the commencement address June 11.

At his Gettysburg country place, the President received a 1,300-pound Black Angus cow, and his wife—who remained in Washington—got a 150-pound calf of the same breed from the Brandywine Aberdeen Angus Breeders Assn.

Mexico produced 3,900,000,000 pounds of milk in 1934, but milk consumption decreased slightly because of restrictions on imports of powdered milk.

MANASSEH'S SIN AND REPENTANCE II Chronicles 33:9-20

Key verse: Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God! Let thy good spirit lead me on a level path! Psalm 143:10.

After Hezekiah's success in re-awakening the people of Judah to their religious responsibilities in worshipping the true God and demonstrating his own faith in God as the Assyrian host threatened Jerusalem, it is discouraging to see what occurred in the reign of his son Manasseh.

In a half century Judah fell from spiritual heights to degrading depths. Manasseh was only 12 when he ascended the throne and his reign was, without doubt, not only the longest (55 years), but the worst the Southern Kingdom had ever experienced. Maybe the young king was a victim of bad associates or the influence of powerful heathen nations. He followed the path at least resistance and, even worse, set out to destroy everything that his father had striven to build.

The account in II Chronicles 33 reads: "Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom the Lord destroyed before the people of Israel." This refers to the Amorites, a heathen people destroyed when Joshua led the Israelites into the Promised Land. The wickedness and corruption encouraged by Manasseh really sealed Judah's doom. He set up idols in the temple, introduced Assyrian star worship, sacrificed his own children as burnt offerings, named a son Amon after Egypt's king, and desecrated every holy place. His long list of atrocities includes a savage persecution of the prophets, Isaiah included.

When the Lord spoke to Manasseh and the people "they gave no heed." So God punished the cruel king! The army of the king of Assyria captured Manasseh, actually took him with hooks, bound him with fetters, and dragged him to Babylon. There he lay in agony and humiliation in an Assyrian dungeon! In his extremity, he realized that God's wrath and punishment had fallen upon him. But it took utter defeat and disgrace to bring him to his senses. He had defied God and led his people astray. Would God hear his prayer or listen to his plea of repentance?

God did hear his prayer and knew he truly repented of his sins. He finally brought him back to Jerusalem and restored his throne. This act of mercy on the part of God impressed Manasseh. "Then Manasseh knew that the Lord was God." As a result the king did everything possible to correct his deeds of commission, but he discovered that it is much easier to lead people into evil ways than to lead them out of them. The people had become so immoral and idolatrous that he was faced with a huge undertaking.

Manasseh began with reforms in his personal life first. He tried by example to bring the people back to God and his persistence and thoroughness convinced everyone of his sincerity. "The Prayer of Manasses," a book in the Apocrypha which appears in some Bibles between the Old and New Testaments, contains only eight verses—the prayer of Manasseh when he was captive in Babylon. This was the turning point in his career, but despite his efforts to undo the damage to his kingdom, it grew weaker and weaker.

Among the acts of Manasseh was to build an outer wall around Jerusalem — probably to protect it from Assyrian invasion from the north. These military projects could not have been achieved unless there had been a tremendous religious reformation. How important it is for nations to support wise leaders! The people of any nation are easily influenced for good or bad by those in high places.

Manasseh's bitter lesson is a good example of how God sometimes has to make us suffer in order to have us turn to Him. He helps us to find ourselves also and thus molds our lives in a Christ-like pattern. Once conscience is awakened, God can speak to the heart of man. His compassion and mercy are boundless. But when men go their own sinful way, relentlessly and purposefully, God has no choice but to punish.

The deepest oil wells penetrate the earth about four miles.

EVERYONE WELCOME

Sweet Sixteen

How proud Mother and Dad are of their lovely young graduate. They bask in the glow from her fresh beauty and quite understandably feel a sense of accomplishment. Raising a baby daughter and seeing her attain this threshold is an achievement.

But hold on there, Dad, before you burst with natural pride. What have you given this daughter other than the physical necessities of food and clothing? What have you done about her spiritual needs?

And, Mother, you who have often denied yourself for this beloved girl, what inner endowment have you passed on? Have you enriched her soul with faith and understanding?

How about it, parents of this lovely graduate, have you given your daughter the religious training and habit of regular church attendance that will help her more than all else to meet life's problems with tranquility, to make the most of her promising future?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

QUIGLEY TALKS TO COMMITTEE ON WHEAT BILL

Congressman James M. Quigley, representative of the Adams-Cumberland-York district, testified on behalf of his bill removing wheat which is consumed on the farm from government acreage allotments, at a hearing of the Wheat Subcommittee of the House Agriculture Committee on Wednesday.

Speaking of the raising of wheat for crop rotation and feed for stock, Mr. Quigley said that as long as they are subject to this, "these prudent farmers are being penalized for operating their farms on sound principles."

The complete text of Mr. Quigley's testimony:

"You are now considering a number of bills, including one which I have introduced, all of which would exempt wheat producers from liability under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 where all the wheat crop is fed or used for seed on the farm.

"I believe there is little need to justify such legislation. In my opinion each of these bills, by its very title, justifies itself. When wheat is used entirely on the farm where it is grown, it does not enter into the open market. It, therefore, has absolutely no impact on the factors which govern the price of wheat to those farmers who produce it as a cash crop. Therefore, as I see it, there is no necessity for placing wheat grown entirely for use on the farm where it is grown, under the jurisdiction of the acreage allotment program, the aim of which is to help maintain a decent price level for those who grow wheat as a cash crop.

"I should like to invite the attention of the subcommittee to some of the support for this legislation that has been evidenced from the 19th Congressional District, composed of Adams, Cumberland and York Counties.

"One of the more distinguished constituents whom I represent is the Honorable George M. Leader, Governor of Pennsylvania and a prominent poultry farmer. When I introduced H. R. 3222, Governor Leader wrote me that the bill is something that our area has needed for quite a long time."

"The Governor also expressed the hope that the legislation would be approved by the Agriculture Committee. A. P. Hornor Jr., secretary of the Cumberland County Farmers Association, also endorsed the bill for himself and on behalf of his organization. I have heard from a large number of individual farmers who urge adoption of this legislation.

"This legislation is of particular interest to the poultry farmers, who have been suffering through a very difficult period. Most of the poultrymen in the 19th Congressional District build their business on the approved farm management practice of crop rotation. This requires the growing of wheat in the rotation for the improvement of soil and pasture and at the same time provides an important source of feed grain for their own stock.

"So long as they are subject to the penalty provisions of the wheat acreage allotment program, these prudent farmers are being penalized for operating their farms on sound principles.

"Mr. Chairman, in Pennsylvania many of our state owned institutions grow wheat which is either milled at the institution or by a commercial miller, and then used by the same institution where it was grown for food. Under existing law, these institutions are subject to penalties under the wheat acreage allotment program. This situation has been called to my attention after the introduction of H. R. 3232. I believe such institutions could be relieved from the penalty by the addition of two words to H. R. 3232, or to any of the other identical bills now under consideration.

"I respectfully suggest that the committee give consideration to the

Farmers Will Decide June 25 Whether They Want New Wheat Marketing Quotas Continued

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Farmers who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest in 1956 will have an opportunity to decide whether wheat marketing quotas are to be continued another year. The United States department of Agriculture has set June 25 as the date for the referendum which, to pass, requires a two-thirds of the wheat producers who vote. If marketing quotas (of wheat a farmer may sell or feed) are accepted, farmers who stay within their wheat acreage allotment will be eligible to receive the support price for their wheat. Those who harvest from a larger acreage would again be subject to a penalty on every bushel of wheat produced on the excess acres.

If marketing quotas are rejected the level of price support under the present law could be 50 per cent of parity or approximately $1.23 per bushel. This support price would be available only if the producer did not overplant his allotment, for regardless of whether quotas are voted or not, wheat allotment will still be assigned to producers.

Await Official Word

At present there is no official information as to the level at which the price of wheat would be supported if quotas are approved. Secretary Benson has promised to announce that level before the June 25 referendum. However, in view of present supplies and the provisions of existing laws, wheat will likely be supported at a price in the neighborhood of $1.96 per bushel.

If quotas are rejected, there is a strong possibility that Congress will raise the support level from $1.23 and 50 per cent of parity called for by the present law to something like $1.55, or 65 per cent of parity.

Legislation is now before Congress which would exempt wheat growers from marketing quota penalties if all the wheat produced on their farms is used for feed or seed on the farms where produced.

Two New Compounds

Two new cadmium compounds — cadmium oxide and cadmium anthranilate — have been found to be very effective in the removal of large roundworms in swine. Cadmium oxide is most effective when fed as 0.15 per cent of the ration (wet or dry) for a period of three consecutive days.

Cadmium anthranilate, tried on a more limited scale, also has been found to be very satisfactory. It has not been checked by research as thoroughly as has the cadmium oxide. The work that has been done shows that cadmium anthranilate is best used when fed as .044 per cent of the ration (wet or dry) for a period of three consecutive days.

Both compounds seem to be safer to use than the sodium fluoride, while being just as effective. They have the advantage of a three day feeding which tends to give all hogs about the right amount of the worming compounds. Hogs need not be kept off feed nor the feed restricted the day before the treatment begins.

The cadmium compounds must be secured through a veterinarian or druggist. At the present time they may be difficult for farmers to get because they are relatively new.

Farmers should follow the directions on the containers and to be sure to mix these compounds thoroughly with the feed.

Cattlemen, packers and consumers are asking if feeding stilbestrol to fattening cattle has any effect on carcass grades and value. Early tests at a Mid-West private research farm indicate that stilbestrol has no appreciable influence on the quality of beef produced.

Two lots of steers fed at the farm were recently shipped to the stockyards together. One lot had been fed stilbestrol; the other had not. Two reputable packer-buyers graded these animals without knowing what either lot had been fed. From the stilbestrol-fed lot, five graded prime, three low prime, one high choice, and one choice. From the control lot where no stilbestrol was fed, two graded prime, five low prime, and two high choice. Both groups of steers averaged the same — low prime.

Test Many Steers

In another test at the same research farm, carcasses from two lots of ten steers were tested for dressing percentage, carcass grade and value. One lot had been fed stilbestrol; the other had not. Otherwise, the two lots were equal in all respects.

Shipping shrink in the control lot was 4.41 per cent, compared to 3.44 per cent in the stilbestrol-fed lot. Chilled carcass dressing percentage was 60.41 in the control lot compared to 59.8 in the other. The percentage of carcass weight to farm weight was identical in both lots — 57.7 — as was the selling price — $23.50 per hundredweight.

In the control lot, seven steers graded choice and three good. In the stilbestrol-fed eight graded choice and two good. "These early tests strongly indicate that stilbestrol has no appreciable effects — up or down — on carcass grades and value!"

Third Cover Spray On Apples Called

The third cover spray in apples and the second cover spray for peaches are called for in letters sent out by County Agent Frank S. Zettle. Insect and disease conditions continue about the same as they have in recent weeks, with the weather generally retarding insect development.

On apples, per 100 gallons of spray, the recommended chemicals are two pounds of a 50 per cent wettable powder DDT, two pounds of Aramite 15W and 1½ pounds of captan. For concentrate sprays the amounts of the chemicals should be tripled.

Ovatran may be used instead of Aramite, using ½ pound in dilute sprays or 1½ pounds in a concentrate spray. Or if aphids are a problem Demeton (Systox) may be used, ½ pint in dilute and one pint in concentrate sprays, instead of the Aramite. Where powdery mildew is a problem ½ pound of Karathane may be added to captan in dilute sprays, 2½ pounds in concentrate sprays.

On peach, six pounds of a dry wettable sulphur per 100 gallons of spray should be used in dilute solutions, 18 pounds in concentrate.

Carl T. Bemiller and wife, Hanover, sold to Roy N. Lamb and wife, Conewago Twp., for $13,000, a property in Conewago Twp.

Mr. and Mrs. Bemiller sold to Earl L. Schuman and wife, Conewago Twp., for $11,000, a property in Conewago Twp.

Mr. and Mrs. Bemiller sold to Omer P. Rickrode, Conewago Twp., for $10,500, a property in Conewago Twp.

joint. Q. Because the mixture was definitely too lean, and we could not seem to adjust for a better situation, the carburetor on my car was recently replaced. However, the leanness continues. Choke action is apparently normal. N. J. K. A. I would be suspicious of an air leak at the intake manifold. In fact, the manifold may be cracked.

Q. I notice that the front tires on my car are wearing excessively. Could this be due to power steering? Wm. L. F. A. This is due to underinflation or misalignment. Because power makes steering so easy we are apt to forget to check front tire pressures.

Q. What is the normal vacuum reading when an engine is idling? N. L. A. This runs from about 19 to 22 inches of vacuum.

Q. Is it true that a car will ride easier after a greasing? N. R. F. A. In general, yes. Lubricant does act as a cushion and it also helps damp out some of the road shock which always helps to give a sense of an easier ride. The effect isn't as noticeable these days for two reasons. First, the modern car rides so much easier it is more difficult to note any improvement. Second, the spring shackles are no longer greased so there is less variation at this point. Front ends have coil springs.

Q. There is a sort of film over the windshield of my car so that when it is raining the wipers leave a very light but noticeable streak. I have tried cleaning the glass but it doesn't seem to make any difference. T. H. A. This really is a film of grease. It comes from using greasy cloths for wiping off the glass. To do a good cleaning job first wipe off with alcohol. Dry and then clean with one of the window cleaners that leaves a white powdery deposit as it dries. After wiping this off the glass should be really clean again.

Q. I have several times read the term "after bolt." Please explain what this means, and what can be done to eliminate it. H. C. McB. A. "After bolt" refers to the habit a cooling system has of boiling after the engine has been switched off. Water trapped in the cylinder head or around valves runs up over 212 degrees and, in boiling, forces water up and forward to the radiator where it may go out the overflow pipe. This condition is caused by hot spots in the engine, usually due to excessive carbon deposits.

Q. What is the purpose of the larger air space around some of the new spark plugs? E. N. A. This provides for more space in which the ingoing cool gases can circulate, thus helping to prevent the plug points from overheating. There also is improved turbulence of the gases.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

MISS WAGNER IS

matching white satin jacket. Her headpiece was a white beaded lace tiara with veil to match. She carried a colonial bouquet of red roses.

Bride's Attendants

The bride attendants were Mrs. E. Dewey Collins, R. 3, sister of the bride, and Mrs. William Hemler, Carlisle St., who were ballroom-length gowns of blue net over satin. The brides were form-fitting and the skirts were full.

Additional attendants were Miss Ruth Ann Wagner, R. 3, sister of the bride, and Miss Joan Smith, McSherrystown, who were similar gowns in pink; Miss Patricia Sanders, S. Washington St., and Miss Joyce Gross, who appeared in yellow gowns. The latter three attendants are cousins of the bride.

All the attendants were beaded lace tiaras with veils to match their gowns. Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Hemler and Miss Gross all carried colonial bouquets of red roses and Miss Wagner and Miss Smith carried similar bouquets of yellow roses.

Six Ushers Serve

Curvin Wagner, R. 3, brother of the bride, was the best man. The flower girls were Miss Catherine Schrade, R. 5, and Miss Carol Ann Hawbecker, R. 1, cousin of the bride. They both wore long white gowns of tulle over satin with hats to match. The ring bearer was Philip Asper, R. 3.

Ushers included E. Dewey Collins, R. 3, brother-in-law of the bride; John Kiser, R. 5; William Hemler, Carlisle St.; Mark Steinhorn, Muncaster St.; Richard Cole, Stevens St.; and Gilbert Bowling, S. Washington St. All accompanied the bridesmaids from the church.

Mrs. George F. Eberhart, church organist, played Carlo Rossini's wedding marches. She accompanied the soloist, Miss Nancy Ramer, Buford Ave., who sang "Ave Maria," "Pavane Angelicus" and "O, Lord I Am Not Worthy."

The mother of the bride wore a light blue dress with navy blue jacket and white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

Wedding Breakfast

A wedding breakfast was served at Bankert's Restaurant, R. 1, for the wedding party and relatives. This evening a wedding reception will be held in the church social hall for 200. Out-of-town guests are from McSherrystown, Hanover, York, Red Lion, Aspers, New Oxford, Shamokin, Biglerville, Mechanicsburg and Washington, D. C.

After the reception the couple will leave on a week's honeymoon in the Poconos. The bride will wear a yellow dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the bride until their newly-built house along the Biglerville Road is completed.

The bride is a graduate of the Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, and of the York Hospital School of Nursing. She is a member of the nursing staff at Warner Hospital. Mr. Brady, a Delone graduate, is employed by the York Corporation, York. He spent three and a half years in the U.S.A.P., 16 months of which were in the South Pacific area.

INTEGRATION IN SOUTH BEGINS

ATLANTA (AP)—Leaders of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People assembled for an important strategy meeting in Atlanta today only a few hours after starting a drive for early integration in the South.

Acting on behalf of nine parents of 19 Atlanta Negro school children, NAACP attorneys yesterday filed a petition with the Atlanta Board of Education urging immediate reorganization of the schools in accordance with decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court.

The petition was directed to Atlanta School Supt. Ira Jarrell and the Board of Education. Miss Jarrell made no comment, but President Devereaux McClatchey of the school board said the action was not unexpected.

Follows Court Decision

NAACP officials said the form used was worked out after the Supreme Court's decision May 17, 1954, outlawing segregation in the public schools, but it was withheld until the "implementing" decision on Tuesday. Similar petitions would be filed elsewhere in the South, they said.

In other developments, the Holston Conference of the Methodist Church, meeting at Chattanooga, Tenn., adopted without a dissent-
